

Olive Ann Beech
1903-1993

Born in Waverly, Kansas, on September 25, 1903, Olive Ann Beech co-founded Beech Aircraft Company in Wichita, Kansas, in 1932 with her husband Walter Beech. She played a vital role in the company and after his death in 1950, leading Beech Aircraft Corporation until her retirement in 1982.

Known as the "First Lady of Aviation," she was inducted into the National (1981), Kansas (1986), and International (1995) Aviation Halls of Fame. Mrs. Beech is the only Kansan and one of only three women inducted into the American National Business Hall of Fame (1983).

You're invited to attend the
Olive Ann Beech
Historical Marker Dedication Ceremony
Sunday, July 11, 2010
Time: 1-2 PM
Waverly Community Building
308 Pearson Street
Waverly, Kansas

If you are interested in participating in the Parade of Beechcraft, which will be part of the ceremony, please contact the Museum to register.

Schedule of Activities at Col. Jabara Airport (KAAO):

Fri. or Sat.	Arrival
Sat. 1-4 PM	Static Display
Sat. Evening	Dinner (details TBD)
Sun. 11 AM	Pilot Briefing
Sun. 12:30 PM	Departure for Waverly

Beechcraft Heritage Museum
(931) 455-1974
info@BeechcraftHeritageMuseum.org

Information for hotel and logistics is available upon request.

For more information and/or to participate in the Parade of Beechcraft, contact Wade McNabb, executive director of the Beechcraft Heritage Museum, at info@beechcraftmuseum.org or 931-455-1974.