

ABS Beechcraft Instructor Crosstalk

Frederick, MD August 18-20, 2017

The ABS-BIC is a gathering of experienced CFIs to discuss best practices for conducting transition and recurrent training in Beechcraft Bonanzas, Debonairs, Barons and Travel Airs.

Sponsored by AVEMCO Insurance

Hosted by the AOPA National Aviation Community Center

AGENDA

FRIDAY, August 18

1700 – 1800 Registration and cash bar

Mexicali Restaurant

467 West Patrick St. Frederick, MD

1800 – 2000 Welcome dinner. Introductions. Overview of the event.

SATURDAY, August 19

0830 – 0945 Tips for Presenting the BPPP Flight Syllabus
Greg Keshishian, Senior BPPP Instructor

1000 – 1130 Safety: Make it Personal
Richard McSpadden, Executive Director, AOPA Air Safety Institute

1130 – 1300 Lunch

1300 – 1415 Risk Management and Instructor Liability
Alex Walters, AVEMCO Insurance

1430 – 1545 Teaching Stalls and Spins
Geoff Nye, Senior BPPP Instructor

1545 – 1630 Discussion: Staying current and enhancing your skills as a CFI;
Why and how to become accredited as a BPPP instructor

1700 – 2000 ABS-BIC Dinner

SUNDAY, August 20

0830 – 0945 Beechcraft Dual Instructional Mishaps, and How to Avoid Them
Thomas P. Turner, ABS Air Safety Foundation/BPPP Instructor

1000 – 1130 Discussion: Encouraging pilots to seek type-specific training;
Challenging the experienced Beechcraft pilot

1130 – 1200 Final comments; Presentation of certificates

AOPA National Aviation Community Center

The ABS Beechcraft Instructor Crosstalk is free to ABS members, including meals. Costs are covered by the generous bequest of Richard Swenson in honor of Beechcraft Pilot Proficiency Program (BPPP) founder Sam James, and our sponsor AVEMCO Insurance.

